POLICY: Governing the display of works of art and craft by members of the public on library property.

PURPOSE: The Frankfort Public Library District welcomes the opportunity to allow community groups, organizations, or individuals to use the designated display area of the Library.

PROCEDURAL CONTROL:

An Art Review Committee appointed by the Executive Librarian will administer the display. Acceptance of artwork by the Frankfort Public Library District does not constitute an endorsement by the Frankfort Public Library District of the group's or individual's policies or beliefs. The Review Committee will be responsible for selecting artwork, establishing and maintaining contact with community organizations and for resolving any display conflicts. Final approval for display will be given by the Executive Librarian. Priorities for the use of the display case will be determined in the following order:

- 1) Frankfort Public Library District and Library related groups;
- 2) Official agencies and local governments serving the Frankfort Public Library District;
- 3) Individuals residing or organizations based in the Frankfort Public Library District; and
- 4) All others. Artwork is scheduled for exhibit for a period of one to three calendar months.

Publicity for a display is also the responsibility of the exhibitor. All artwork for display must be picked up within 30 days of the end of display by the artist (or parent of participant if under 18). After 30 days, the artwork becomes the property of the Frankfort Public Library District to be disposed of at the Library's discretion. All materials are displayed at the SOLE RISK of the Exhibitor. All materials in the Library will be given reasonable care and protection within the limits of the general operation of the Library, but the Library and the Board do not assume responsibility for damages or loss suffered on its premises, nor the cost of insurance coverage. Such costs, losses, damages, etc., are understood to be the responsibility of the organization or individual providing the display or exhibit. The Library does not carry insurance on any items owned by the exhibitor. Exhibitors are encouraged to insure the items on display; any such insurance shall name the library as an additional insured. The Library will not provide storage for the property of organizations or individuals displaying in the Library. All exhibitors are required to sign the attached form which releases the Library from any responsibility for displayed items. It is the policy of the library not to present exhibits that advertise commercial endeavors, that advocate the election of specific candidates or seek to influence the votes of a legislative body or the policy decisions of a governmental body, to urge support of or opposition to any religious belief, or any exhibit which would materially and substantially interfere with the proper functions of the Library,

PROHIBITED DISPLAYS: The material displayed and the manner in which it is displayed will be regulated to the extent necessary to prevent the display's physical characteristics from interfering with the Library patrons' or staff's use of the facilities for study, work, learning, and enjoyment. The Library welcomes expression of all viewpoints, but displays may not advertise commercial endeavors, advocate the election of specific candidates or seek to influence the votes of a legislative body or the policy decisions of a governmental body. Furthermore, to prevent injury to Library patrons, material that threatens violence or intimidation of any individual or group; is obscene, defamatory, or invades a particular person's privacy may not be displayed. The Library has the sole and absolute discretion to remove any materials or displays violating these policies immediately. Prices may not be affixed to any material on display, although an exhibitor's name, address, and telephone number may be posted. The Library will not facilitate the sale of any materials.
